

(It's A Question Of) Real Life

Iain Gilmour

Verse 1

Sitting in your bedroom,
Typing on your phone,
Post another picture,
Add another moan.
Checking on the feedback,
Counting all the likes,
Hoping you'll get plenty,
Something isn't right.
There's no control on social media,
Tread carefully if I was you.

Chorus

It's a question of real life,
Not what's on a screen.
Be wary of strangers,
Who don't care what their comments mean.
Better talking to real folk,
Not one of those fakes.
Beware of the dangers,
On the path you take.

Verse 2

Look at all the headlines,
Someone from T.V.,
Getting nasty comments,
Almost constantly.
Now another school kid,
Bullied on the net,
Found it hard to handle,
Something to regret.
Be careful using social media,
Too many people out for you.

Chorus

It's a question of real life,
Not what's on a screen.
Be wary of strangers,
Who don't care what their comments mean.
Better talking to real folk,
Not one of those fakes.
Beware of the dangers,
On the path you take.

Verse 3

So like in the real world,
There is good and bad,
Online can be thrilling,
Or can drive us mad.
Staying safe is vital,
Make it positive for you.
Blocking stuff that's nasty,
Is the thing to do.
So watch your back on social media,
Avoid the negativity.

Chorus

It's a question of real life,
Not what's on a screen.
Be wary of strangers,
Who don't care what their comments mean.
Better talking to real folk,
Not one of those fakes.
Beware of the dangers,
On the path you take.
