

The Defibrillator Song

Iain Gilmour

Verse

If there's a cardiac arrest then start your CPR,
Send for a defibrillator: shouldn't be too far.
Get out the paramedic crew by calling 999,
Follow the instructions, take a breath and take your time.
Remember what you're singing,
Then you'll know what you must do:

Chorus

Use the defibrillator and help someone get better,
It's a life-saving machine you know it's true.
There is no need to panic, it is all automatic,
The machine will do the tricky bit for you.
You open the kit and on the bare chest you stick on,
Both the sticky pads with wires going in.
Then let it do its magic so the outcome's not tragic,
The defibrillator's gonna help you win.
