

The Launch

Patrick Nicholls

I look into space and I wonder,
What's up there?
I look into space and I wonder,
Are those stars in the sky,
Or lights passing by?
It's strange.

How would it feel,
Floating in space?
Would it feel real?
Check the data,
Test the engines,
Hold!

I look into space and I wonder,
What's up there.
I look into space and I wonder,
Is the Moon in the sky,
Really so far away?

Rockets are ready,
Systems are running,
Ev'ryone ready,
Systems are go!
Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one, Lift off!

The rocket's blasting off the ground,
The crowds are deafened by the sound,
The fastest rocket ship around!

Are those stars in the sky,
Or lights passing by tonight?
