

The Red Panda's Plea

Music and lyrics by Catherine Brentnall

Verse 1

Deep in the forest, in the bamboo trees,
A red panda's crying, can you help him please?
People are chopping the trees down everywhere,
Doesn't anybody care?
The red panda's habitat is disappearing fast,
How much longer will the red panda last?
The species is threatened, it's time for you and me,
To hear the red panda's plea.

Chorus

Save our forests!
Don't chop down that tree!
Save our forests!
Hear the red panda's plea.

Part 1

Save our forests!
Don't chop down that tree!
Save our forests!
Hear the red panda's plea.

Hear the red panda's plea.
Hear the red panda's plea.

Part 2

The red panda's habitat is disappearing fast,
How much longer will the red panda last?
The species is threatened, it's time for you and me,
To hear the red panda's plea.

Hear the red panda's plea.
Hear the red panda's plea.
