

When Life Gives You Lemons

Iain Gilmour

Verse 1

When life gives you lemons,
Makes it rather sour.
Hard to keep on smiling,
With lemons ev'ry hour.
But stop and think about it,
There's a diff'rent way around.
Could always start making lemonade or life might get you down.

Verse 2

Never is as easy,
When blue skies turn to grey.
Hard to find the sunshine,
With rainfall ev'ry day.
But making good from bad things,
It is something quite profound.
Could always start making lemonade or life might get you down.
Could always start making lemonade or life might get you down.

Bridge

Not easy,
Not easy,
Not easy,
But worth trying.
Not easy,
Not easy,
Give it a go, after all you got nothing to lose.

Verse 3

When life gives you lemons,

Makes it rather sour.

Hard to keep on smiling,

With lemons ev'ry hour.

But stop and think about it,

There's a diff'rent way around.

Could always start making lemonade or life might get you down.

Could always start making lemonade or life might get you down.

Could always start making lemonade or life might get you down.
